

Destination Services You Can Put Your Name On

A local Personal Host delivers in-person destination services for your clients in 30+ markets.

Your clients' hardest moves are the ones that land on your desk. Executive, family, and complex international assignments need someone on the ground, without you building that network.

What Concierge delivers

- | | | |
|---|------------------------------------|--|
|  | A Local Host, in Person | Vetted Hosts who live in the market and know its neighborhoods, schools, and landlords. |
|  | Every Detail, Handled | Tours, housing appointments, registrations, and settling-in, run end to end on your file. |
|  | A Single Point of Contact | One Host for the assignee, one Relocity contact for your consultants, start to finish. |
|  | Built for High-Stakes Moves | Executive, family, and complex international, where in-person delivery protects the account. |
|  | Fits Your Service Lines | Maps to your existing tiers and SOWs, so it slots into programs you already run. |
